Safety in REYKJAVÍK

- Check the daily weather forecast often as conditions can change quickly in Iceland. Get weather reports in English from the Icelandic.
- Stay a safe distance from shorelines at beaches due to the risk of deadly "sneaker waves" and strong undercurrents.
- Never climb on icebergs, even on beaches.
- Do not walk on or inside a glacier unless you are on a professionally guided excursion.
- Be careful around hot springs and mud pots; always stay behind safety barricades.
- Pay attention to cliff edges, especially on windy days.
- Never stop your car in the middle of a road, or on the shoulder of the highway, for a photo. Park only in safe, designated areas.
